

Topic: Writing a Personal Letter

1 Think about

These four building tasks will help you express your thoughts and ideas about writing a personal letter.

Build: Build a model that shows something you would like to tell a friend or family member in a letter.

Building Time: 3-4 minutes

Share: When the building time is up, take turns telling each other about what you have built.

Keep your model on your own building plate.

Language Arts, Writing a Personal Letter, 2nd-3rd grades

©2012 The LEGO Group.

Topic: Writing a Personal Letter

2 Remember

Now that you've thought about a specific example of a letter you could write, it is useful to think about why you might want to write it.

Build: Build a model that shows why this friend or family member is important to you and why you would like to write them a letter.

Building Time: 3-4 minutes

Share: When the building time is up, take turns telling each other about what you have built.

Keep your model on your own building plate.

Language Arts, Writing a Personal Letter, 2nd-3rd grades

©2012 The LEGO Group.

Topic: Writing a Personal Letter

3 Imagine

Now you will use your imagination and creativity to think about the person to whom you are writing a letter and what will happen when the letter is received.

Build: Build a model that shows how you think your friend or family member will feel when they read your letter.

Building Time: 3-4 minutes

Share: When the building time is up, take turns telling each other about what you have built.

Keep your model on your own building plate.

Language Arts, Writing a Personal Letter, 2nd-3rd grades

©2012 The LEGO Group.

Topic: Writing a Personal Letter

4 Conclude

Now you will build a model that sums up what you have learned so far.

Build: Build a model that shows another way you could tell a friend or family member what is happening in your life.

Building Time: 3-4 minutes

Share: When the building time is up, take turns telling each other about what you have built.

Keep your model on your own building plate.

Language Arts, Writing a Personal Letter, 2nd-3rd grades

©2012 The LEGO Group.